LOS ANGELES, Calif. (September 16, 2016) – Relive the magic of flying onboard a luxurious Pan Am 747 as Hālau Nā Mamo 'O Pana'ewa, led by Kumu Hula Keoki Wang, announces their participation to commemorate the 80th anniversary of Pan Am's inaugural flight to Honolulu (SFO-HNL) via the Los Angeles based theme attraction the Pan Am Experience (www.panamexperience.com) on October 22, 2016 at 6:30 pm. From its birth in 1927, Pan American World Airways was the pioneer airline whose routes spanned six (6) continents and more than 80 (eighty) countries. Almost a century later, the name Pan Am is still a very powerful brand, and inside this Southern California motion picture studio sits an exact replica of the airline's Boeing 747 and everything that made it so special.

Called "L.A.'s hottest new restaurant" by Yahoo Travel, guests will experience a gourmet five course meal. This event will be celebrated with special cocktails and a Hawaiian themed menu typical for Pan Am flights bound for Hawaii as well as all things aloha.

"We are honored and humbled to have been selected as the hula hālau to be participating in this inaugural event", states Keoki Wang, "we look forward in sharing our hula and celebrating the inaugural flight of Pan Am to Hawaii."
