A rare flower, Mailani Makainai (Mailani) offers her own fragrance and color to the Hawaiian music industry. Growing and enjoying a very successful solo career, Mailani continues to fashion songs for all to enjoy. In 2010, the Hawaii Academy of Recording Arts recognized Mailani with a Nā Hōkū Hanohano Award® for Female Vocalist of the Year for her self-titled album, "Mailani." The album, "Aina," followed in 2011, which continued to connect Mailani's growing fan base to her particular style of music. In 2013, her third solo project "Manawa,"; further showcased Mailani's warm, sultry vocals, as well as her strong song writing gifts. In 2015, Mailani was honored as the Female vocalist of the year for a second time, securing her as one of Hawaii's top female vocalist. Most recently, Mailani sang the National Anthem at the Indiana Pacers NBA game to a sold out crowd. One of Hawaii's female mover and shaker, she continues to spread the Aloha Spirit around the world through music and storytelling.

"I am excited to be a part of this ho'ike and share my songs and stories about my island home," states the award-winning artist.

"We are so honored to have such a wonderful musician and soul join us," states Keoki Wang, "her voice and vocal styling is enticing, beautiful, soothes the soul and takes you to paradise."
